Ceud tainig (a hundred thanks)

The 9th annual Hororata Highland Games has once again turned on a spectacular event and been enjoyed by thousands of visitors and competitors.

The Highland Games is a unique event with 10 competitive events taking place in amongst a huge cultural festival which celebrates a very special blend of Scottish and Kiwi culture. There are very few events that manage to mix such a diverse range of elements giving visitors a full experience.

One of the most pleasing things I saw at the Games was families of all ages taking part in the many Have A Go activities together. The vibe of the whole event was of relaxed family fun. The huge team of volunteers has done an amazing job yet again. To pull off an event this big and do it so well is a massive undertaking. 230 people join the Clan each year to make the Games happen, thank you to each and every one of you. Congratulations to the Games Organising Committee for once again leading the Clan and to the team leaders for running their activities so smoothly.

We are grateful to our partners and funders for their support and for joining our community on this journey.

The entertainers, Clans, stall holders and demonstration groups are a big part of creating the wonderful cultural festival feel for the Games, thank you. To the competitors, judges and officials, without you we would not have a Highland Games.

Next year is going to be the Hororata Highland Games 10th birthday. The festival has come a long way in a very short space of time. Our community has pulled together to create an event from the grassroots that has not only put Hororata on the map and brought many benefits for this small rural area, but is also recognised as a leading festival that is run to a very high standard.

As a community we are fundraising for our new Hororata Community Centre, this is going to be no small feat but we have a track record of punching well above our weight so I have no doubt we will achieve our target. The Hororata Highland Games is the launch pad and we have been building a foundation from its success to build a bright future for our community.

Until 'auld acquaintances' meet again in 2020

What people have been saying about our amazing Highland Games!...

Kate Cane Visitor: "This was the best event I have been too. So organised clean family-friendly. Really pleased to see a water tanker what a great idea. Had the best day. First time to this event but definitely will not be the last. The commentary re the Highland games was great and had a good understanding of what and why. Loud applause to all those involved. Even started backing the individuals yelling out names etc. was great. Job well done to u all. Great directions given for parking."

Maree Carruthers Stallholder:

"I am writing to congratulate you on organizing a fantastic event today. The venue was superb and everything was really well set out. There was so much to see and do and the atmosphere was amazing. There were hundreds of happy people milling around, and I can't imagine that anybody would have been disappointed with how well everything was organized."

Terry Sparkes Heavy Competitor:

"What a fantastic event. I didn't know what to expect coming from Brisbane to compete in the Oceania and I wasn't disappointed. This is the most seamlessly run sporting event I have participated in to date. The event as a whole, including all other activities, was very entertaining."
