The Hororata Highland Games is proudly supported by Strategic Partners:

Ceud tainig (a hundred thanks)

The 8th annual Hororata Highland Games was an event to remember. With wide spread flooding and snow to low levels in Canterbury on the Friday it really challenged the team, however being a rural event, we have people who know how to manage ground in the wet and can supply ideal resources. With Kiwi ingenuity and team work the event went off without a hitch under clear skies. The Hororata Domain is a wonderful venue which coped well with the amount of rain we received on the Friday with most water disappeared by the time gates opened on Saturday.

9,000 people enjoyed the festival with thousands having a go at the many activities on offer at the Games. 661 competitors took part in 12 competitive events throughout the day.

The entertainers, Clans, stall holders and demonstration groups are a big part of creating the wonderful cultural festival feel for the Games. Thank you all for being part of our community's event. To the competitors, judges and officials, without you we would not have a Highland Games so thank you for continuing to be part of our event.

As always, the biggest thanks must be reserved for Clan Hororata, 230 people join the Clan each year to make the Games happen. Congratulations to the Games Organising Committee for once again leading the Clan. People say 'it must get easier every year', and while in some ways this is true the amount of organisation, time and effort never gets smaller. This is a massive event with so many complexities that it takes everyone working together to pull it off. To the team leaders, who run their areas so efficiently year after year, thank you.

To our partners, thank you for believing in our community, sharing in our passion and supporting the Hororata Community Trust.

The Hororata Community Trust is excited for the future of our community. We are focussing on working with Go Hororata in the development of a new Community Centre on the Hororata Domain. The Hororata Highland Games is the launch pad for many great projects in our community and has put Hororata on the map. We are committed to developing the Games and ensuring it continues to be an inspirational, enjoyable and fun festival celebrating Kiwi and Scottish culture.

Until 'auld acquaintances' meet again in 2019.
